DREAM SUMMER 2016
Host Organization Application

APPLY TO BE A DREAM SUMMER HOST ORGANIZATION

“Collaborating with Dream Summer has manifested into an array of advantages for our organization. All interns have successfully managed to connect the LBIRC with the community in a very holistic manner. The staff at the LBIRC have been able to provide close mentorship for all Dream Summer interns, which has led to the development of cross generational and intersectional services for the Long Beach immigrant community.”

—Dr. Kristine Zentgraf, Long Beach Immigrant Rights Coalition, Executive Director

What is Dream Summer?

The Dream Summer National Internship Program is a project of the UCLA Labor Center’s Dream Resource Center. Moving into its sixth year, Dream Summer has provided over 500 internship opportunities to immigrant youth and allies throughout the nation. This 10-week internship program’s goals are to:

- empowers immigrant youth to be the next generation of social justice leaders through leadership and professional development opportunities;

- creates safe and healing spaces for immigrant youth to connect with each other and explore their identities;

- and promotes an intersectional, cross-racial, and multi-generational approach to social justice that addresses the needs of immigrant communities.
What organizations can participate in Dream Summer?
